

The Midnight Fox

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer each of the following questions with a sentence.

1. In which continent is the story set?

2. Why do you think the story is called 'The Midnight Fox'?

3. Tom was on a flat rock. Why was the rock warm?

4. How were the old dead tree trunks described in the text?

5. Which words in the text tell you that it was shady at the bottom of the ravine?

6. Imagine you were the writer waiting for the fox to come back. On a separate piece of paper write the next part of the story. Jot down some ideas on the lines below.

Notes for teachers

For the final task, the pupils should consider these ideas. How long do you wait? How uncomfortable are you? Does the fox return? if so, how close does she get to you?
