Time Reason Top TRAMP Place Manner

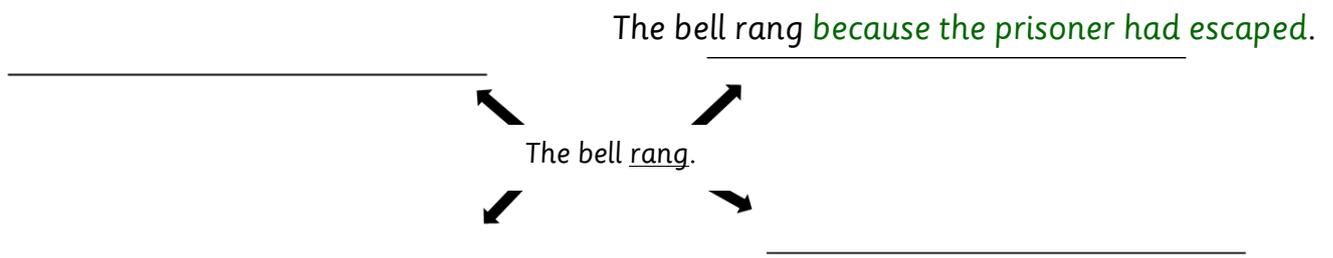

Adverbs and adverbials add detail to a verb. The table below shows how you can remember different types of adverbs/adverbials:

TRAMP
T	Time	When? How often?
R	Reason	Why?
a	adverbs/adverbials
M	Manner	How?
P	Place	Where?

Time – When or how often does the verb occur?

Reason – Why did the verb happen?

Manner – How was the verb carried out?

Place – Where did the verb take place?

Underline the adverbs and adverbials in the following passage and decide if it is an adverbial of time, reason, manner or place. (Remember – ask yourself when/how often did they do the verb? Where did they do the verb? Why did they do the verb? How did they carry out the verb?)

She ran quickly through the forest. Her heart was beating like a drum. Her eyes darted around looking for an escape route. Finally, she spotted one in between two old oak trees! Without hesitation, she bolted to the opening in the trees. Would she survive?
