

Herbs

<h3>Reverse</h3> Discuss: Why is a herb not a spice?	<h3>What if?</h3> Can all herbs be used in cooking? Explain your answer.	<h3>The disadvantages</h3> In your home learning book list the dangers of milk thistle.	<h3>Combination</h3> How many herb and cheese combinations can you think of?	<h3>Alphabet</h3> Compile a list of herbs using the letters in the alphabet.
<h3>Construction</h3> Build or design your own herb garden. This could be inside or out.	<h3>Variations</h3> How many different herbs can you find on your next daily walk or bike ride?	<h3>The Picture</h3> Look at a picture of mint. What can you find out about this common garden herb?	<h3>Prediction</h3> Which two herbs could produce a sweet smelling soap?	<h3>Different uses</h3> Lavender oil is often used in medicine. What else can lavender be used for?
<h3>The Ridiculous</h3> Tights can be used to grow cress. Explain	<h3>Commonality</h3> What do rosemary and thyme have in common?	<h3>The Question</h3> The Answer is: Chives List 5 questions that could have that answer only.	<h3>Brainstorming</h3> Brainstorm the differences between coriander, fennel and tarragon.	<h3>Inventions</h3> Invent your own herb pizza. What will it look like?
<h3>Interpretation</h3> A herb is a plant with leaves, seeds, or flowers used for flavouring, food, medicine and perfume.	<h3>Brick Wall</h3> Basil is known as the 'King of Herbs'. Explain this statement.	<h3>B - A - R -</h3> Bigger Add Replace  Use BAR to improve the design of your herb pizza.	<h3>The Forced Relationship</h3> What would a paintbrush and the herb dill look like when combined? Draw the image in your home learning book.	<h3>The Alternative</h3> List three different herbs that can be used in cooking?